OTHER PROVISIONS NECESSARY FOR DEFINITION OR ADMINISTRATION OF THIS WATER RIGHT:

This water right is a federal reserved water right, is not subject to loss due to non-use, and its exercise on-reservation shall be administered by the Shoshone-Paiute Tribes pursuant to a tribal water code or in accordance with applicable federal law. References to purposes of use, points of diversion, or places of use are not intended as a restriction on the Tribes' ability to change those purposes of use, points of diversion or places of use within the Duck Valley Indian Reservation pursuant to a tribal water code.

This water right recognizes the right of the United States to use water in Idaho claimed to be diverted from water sources in the State of Nevada. To the extent such water right exists in Nevada, this water right describes the period of use, quantity of water, and acres where the water may be applied in Idaho.
