Re: The United States' Claims on behalf of the Kalispel Tribe of Indians

In re: The General Adjudication of Rights to the Use of Water from the Clark Fork – Pend Oreille River Basin Adjudication. Case No. 69576

Dear Mr. Weaver,

Pursuant to the Order Granting Motion for Alternative Filing Schedule for Federal Claims, dated August 21, 2024, granting the United States until January 17, 2025 to file claims on behalf of the Kalispel Tribe of Indians (“Kalispel” or “Tribe”), the United States hereby submits and files the enclosed Notices of Claims (“Tribal Claims”). These Tribal Claims are filed by the United States Department of Justice for the Department of the Interior, Bureau of Indian Affairs, in its role as trustee on behalf of Kalispel.

The Tribal Claims are filed pursuant to federal law, specifically, the federal reserved water rights doctrine as established by Winters v. United States, 207 U.S. 564 (1908) and its progeny. While federal law provides the legal basis for these claims, the United States followed the state law guidance regarding format provided by the Idaho Water Code, where appropriate, in preparing these claims. See Idaho Code § 42-1409(1).

There are a total of 45 Tribal Claims enclosed. The following summary of the Claims is provided for the convenience of the Court and Parties. This entire package consists of three parts: 1) Letter summary of the Tribal Claims; 2) Attachments I-II to the Letter Summary; and 3) the 45 separate Notices of Claims.

A. Kalispel Tribe and Reservation

Prior to the creation of the Kalispel Reservation (“Reservation”), the Tribe’s aboriginal territory included over 2.4 million acres in what is today Montana, Idaho, and Washington. United States v. Pend Oreille Pub. Util. Dist. No. 1, 926 F.2d 1502, 1508 (9th Cir. 1991). The Kalispel Tribe’s historical lifeways centered on hunting, fishing, and gathering in this territory. As confirmed by the testimony of the Tribe’s primary ethnographer, Dr. Allan Smith, before the Indian Claims Commission (“ICC”), “[f]ish played an exceedingly important part in the diet of both the Upper and the Lower Kalispel” and fishing occurred throughout the entire year, particularly the summer, and for bull trout, westslope cutthroat trout, suckers, and white fish, among other species. Petitioner’s Proposed Findings of Fact and Brief (“ICC Pet. FF”) at 25, The Lower Pend D’Oreille or Kalispel Tribe of Indians v. United States (No. 94) (1957).

In contrast to other tribes in the region during late 1800s, the Kalispel steadfastly refused to remove to a reservation that did not include their homeland in the Clark Fork – Pend Oreille River Basin. Findings of Fact, The Lower Pend D’Oreille or Kalispel Tribe of Indians v. United States (No. 94), 6 Ind. Cl. Comm. 353, 356-58 (1958). A primary reason for that refusal was the Tribe’s insistence that it be able to continue its traditional lifeways in its aboriginal territory, including fishing in the Clark Fork - Pend Oreille River Basin. Id. In 1856 and again in 1887, federal officials attempted to negotiate with the Kalispel to cede their aboriginal territory and remove to the Flathead Reservation in Montana, but the Kalispel refused. ICC Pet. FF at 42-43, 47-48. After encroachment on Kalispel lands by white settlers, and after significant efforts on the part of federal officials to protect Kalispel lands, on March 23, 1914, President Woodrow Wilson signed Executive Order 1904, formally establishing the 4,629.27-acre Kalispel Reservation along the Pend Oreille River in the state of Washington. Id. at 49-55. The Tribe never agreed to cede right, title or interest outside the Reservation. C.f., In re CSRBA Case No. 49576 Subcase No. 91-7755, 165 Idaho 517, 548-49, 448 P.3d 322 (2019).

B. Instream Flow Claims for Fish Habitat

The United States, on behalf of Kalispel, claims off-reservation instream flow water rights for fish habitat. These water rights serve the on-reservation fishing rights of the Tribe to support the Reservation as a permanent homeland for the Kalispel people. Arizona v. California, 373 U.S. 546, 599-600 (1963). These claims are essential to support the habitat of fish species that spend important parts of their lifecycles in the Clark Fork – Pend Oreille River Basin in Idaho before migrating downstream to the Reservation where the Tribe exercises its on-reservation fishing rights. Monthly fish habitat flow claims are submitted for a total of 45 stream reaches.

Bull trout, westslope cutthroat trout, and mountain whitefish, among other species, were central to the Tribe's diet and culture since time immemorial and at the time the Reservation was created. The Tribe therefore depended on a year-round supply of water to support habitat to exercise its reserved fishing rights throughout the year. ICC Pet. FF at 22-25. Historical records surrounding the 1914 Executive Order formally establishing the Reservation demonstrate that the United States was plainly aware of the Tribe's historic dependence on the fishery. And the Tribe continues to rely on the fishery resource to this day. Based on the Tribe's fishing culture dating back to aboriginal times, the United States thus claims a priority date of time immemorial for its instream flow claims. United States v. Adair, 723 F.2d 1394, 1414 (9th Cir. 1983); Idaho v. United States, 533 U.S. 262, 265 (2001).

Attached to this letter is a table providing an overall summary of the monthly instream flow claims for each named stream reach (Attachment I). Attachment II provides a map of the claimed stream reaches (note that this same map is attached to each instream flow claim form).

C. Reservation of Rights

Pursuant to the McCarran Amendment, 43 U.S.C. § 666, the United States' claims filed herein are limited to those instream flow water rights held in trust for the benefit of the Tribe in the Clark Fork – Pend Oreille River Basin in Idaho. The Kalispel Tribe is entitled to water rights other than instream flows for fish to meet the homeland purpose of its Reservation, however, the United States as trustee does not seek to adjudicate any of those other tribal federal reserved water rights in this adjudication. By submitting these claims, the United States does not waive any immunities, privileges, or rights except as clearly and unambiguously required by Act of Congress nor does the United States waive any immunities, privileges, or rights on behalf of the Tribe. These claims, and other documents provided herein, do not waive the sovereign immunity of the United States or the Tribe respecting the title to any lands on or off the Kalispel Reservation.

The claim forms comply with Idaho Code § 42-1409(1) where possible, but the use of this format should not be construed to limit either the United States or Kalispel's future use of water outside of the State of Idaho or within the boundaries of the Reservation. The United States reserves the right to supplement and/or amend the water rights claims filed herein. Should the Department have any questions regarding these claims, please do not hesitate to call me at (303) 844-1353.

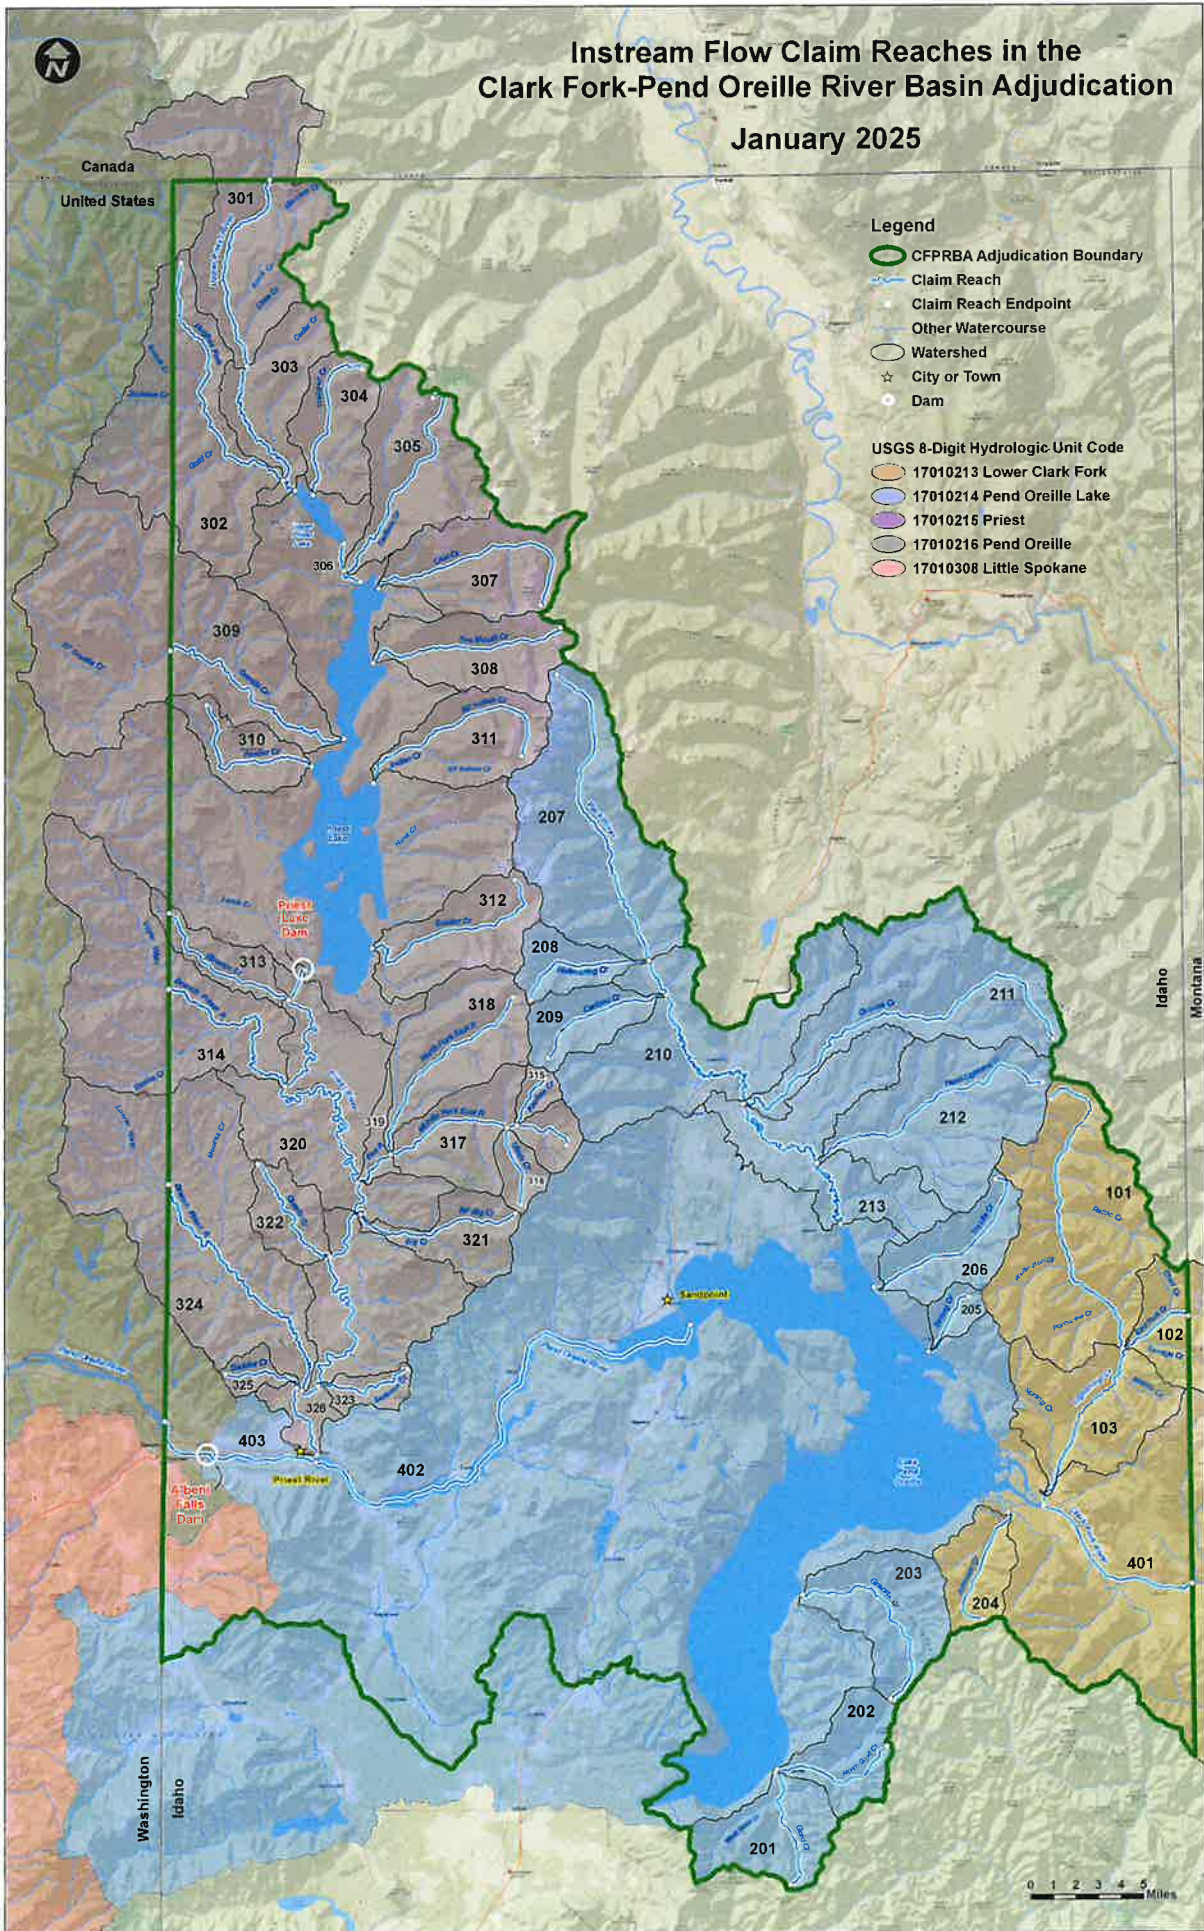

Sincerely,

Vanessa Boyd Willard

6. Purpose of Water Use:

Fish habitat for fish species harvested within the Kalispel Reservation - as a component of water rights necessary to fulfill the homeland purpose of the Kalispel Reservation pursuant to the documents referenced in Section 9 and the provisions in Section 10, infra.

7. Period of Use: January 1 through December 31, as further detailed in Section 8 infra.

8. Quantity Reserved (In cfs):

January	February	March	April	May	June
41.8	47.5	54.2	136	271	249
July	August	September	October	November	December
80.6	27.8	28	29.1	61.3	68.1

9. Basis of Claim:

The legal basis for this water right claim stems from the doctrine of federal reserved water rights articulated by the United States Supreme Court in Winters v. United States, 207 U.S. 564 (1908) and its progeny, as well as the operative documents and circumstances surrounding the creation of the Kalispel Reservation, including but not limited to, the Executive Order signed by President Wilson on March 23, 1914, C. Kapler, Indian Affairs: Laws and Treaties 1051 (Vol. 4, 1927).

10. Other Provisions:

a. This claim is one in a series the United States is making for waters from surface water sources within the Clark Fork-Pend Oreille River Basin Adjudication in the State of Idaho to fulfill the permanent homeland purpose of the Kalispel Indian Reservation, including the present and future fishing purpose.

b. Prior to the creation of the Reservation in 1914, the Kalispel Tribe held aboriginal title to certain lands “within the United States in what are now the States of Washington, Idaho and Montana.” The Lower Pend D 'Oreille or Kalispel Tribe of Indians v. United States of America, Docket No. 94, 12 Ind. Cl. Comm. 141 (1963). The Kalispel Reservation is located on the mainstem Pend Oreille River because fishing is central to the Tribe’s history, culture and use of resources. The Tribe never agreed to cede right, title or interest outside the Reservation. C.f., In re CSRBA Case No. 49576 Subcase No. 91-7755, 165 Idaho 517, 548–49, 448 P.3d 322 (2019).

c. This water right claim is for a traditional use of water that predates the creation of the Kalispel Reservation. This right was not created but was instead confirmed by the executive order outlined in section 9, supra. United States v. Adair, 723 F.2d 1394, 1414 (9th Cir. 1984). Therefore, pursuant to federal law, the priority date of this water right is time immemorial. Id.

d. In order to comply with Idaho Code § 42-1409(1), the United States has designated “places of use,” “points of diversion,” and “purposes of use” in submitting this water rights claim. This proposed water right claim form has been developed in conjunction with, and at the request of, the Idaho Department of Water Resources (“IDWR”). The use of this format as required by Idaho Code, and as requested by IDWR, should not be construed to limit either the United States or the Kalispel Tribe’s future use of water at other points of diversion, places of use or for other purposes within the boundaries of the Reservation. The statute's terminology has been employed to demonstrate that the amount claimed is necessary, justifiable, and available to achieve the purpose of the Reservation as a homeland for the Kalispel Tribe.
